

"Anything but one-eyed"

120X80 cm

oil, scratch, spatula, brush, charcoals sealed with fixative, 2011

Last year Vita was contacted by a representative of the famous Saatchi Gallery in London who had seen her art on the web and Vita was invited to upload her paintings on the Saatchi web Gallery.

- Later on I received an email from Charles Saatchi, expressing how much he enjoyed looking at my paintings on the web. He thought that it was very exciting to see such a high standard in paintings created by an artist characterized by a high degree of variation. He hoped that owners of galleries, directors of exhibitions and collectors would find her art interesting.
